Bridge Whist

Awards Prizes.

The Bridge Whist Club was charmingly entertained yesterday afternoon by Miss Julia Whiting.

This meeting was especially interesting to the members of the club as this was the fourth meeting, and the day to award the prizes for the highest score made during the month.

Those whom luck followed during this time were: Mrs. Wm. R. Gonzalez first prize, Mrs. John C. Avery second, prize, and Mrs. Mallory Kennedy the booby.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. I. H. Alken at her handsome home on Palafox hill.

Rev. F. A. Rogers

Will Stay Here.

Rev. F. A. Rogers, the popular pastor of the Gadsden-street Methodist church has been re-assigned to his charge in Pensacola for another year.

The news that Mr. Rogers and his charming family are to remain in Pensacola was received with pleasure by the congregation of the Methodist church as well as their many other friends.

Mr. Rogers returned from conference a few days ago, and left yesterday for Forest Home, where he will remain the rest of the week, returning to the city in time to conduct services Sunday at his church.

Mrs. D. Hale Wilson

President of U. D. C.

A well attended meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held yesterday afternoon at the chapter rooms.

The meeting was a special one called for the purpose of filling the place of Mrs. F. O. Howe who was prevented from accepting the office of president through a pressure of other duties.

Mrs. D. Hale Wilson was chosen president by a large majority.

Mrs. Wilson will fill the office of president of the Daughters of the Confederacy with honor, and the Pensacola chapter is to be congratulated on its choice.

The date of the next meeting will be announced later.

Miss Lillie Williams

to Give Party.

Miss Lillie Williams will give a "character party" to her friends on Christmas night, at her home in New City.

Each guest will represent a character either of fiction or reality, and will dress so that the name of the character can be easily recognized.
There will be a prize for the best character representation.

Miss Williams's young friends are anticipating a jolly time, as there will be games and music during the evening. Miss Williams's ability as a pianist being well known.

School Girls to #### Return for Christmas.

Thursday a party of young ladies will return from Georgetown where they have been attending the Convent of the Visitation. They are: Miss Mentoria Sublett, Miss Genevieve Brent, Miss Marie Superville, Miss Louise Quinn and Miss Alma Finch.

There are a number of entertainments in view for the amusement of the young ladies to help the few brief days of their homecoming to pass in a happy manner.

Mrs. Marsh's Card

Party at High Noon.

Mrs. F. W. Marsh will entertain a large number of her friends at a "high noon" card party to-day.

Handsome invitations to the affair were issued a few days ago.

The party will be symbolical of the season, the decorations being in red and green, the most prominent of which will be beautiful branches of holly sparkling with red berries. The score cards are hand-painted with tiny branches of holly.

There will be about six tables and the game to be played is six-hand euchre so popular with the ladies, who derive a great deal of amusement from it.

Mrs. Marsh is one of Pensacola's most attractive young matrons, and it goes without saying that her entertainment will be a success.

Killbrow-Wever

Wedding Last Night.

Last night at seven o'clock at the residence of Professor and Mrs. W.
D. Sears, Miss Pauline Wever was married to Mr. Y. C. Killbrow.

Miss Wever is an attractive young lady and has been spending some time with her sisters, Mrs. Sears. The wedding was a quiet home affair and witnessed only by the immediate family.

The young bride looked very pretty and girlish in a becoming costume of blue silk voile.

The groom is a well-known young business man of northern Georgia, and after spending the Christmas holidays with Prof. and Mrs. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Killbrow will probably make their home in that state.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Dr. T. M. Galloway of the First Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Killbrow will be warmly congratulated by their many friends in Pensacola, who wish them a long and happy wedded life.

The euchre party and dance at the Progress Club will be given tonight.
On account of the cool weather prevailing there will probably be a large crowd in attendance.

The Sisters of Mercy gave an entertainment for the children yesterday afternoon which was well attended and much enjoyed by the little ones.

Games were enjoyed, and a grab bag containing many cute little souvenirs was in evidence.

The New City Flinch Club held its last meeting with Mrs. James Gerelds. At this meeting the club decided not to meet again until after Christmas. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Chas. Gray.

The Nomads will be entertained on Thursday of Christmas week by the president, Mrs. F. S. Mellen. Several splendid papers have been prepared and the meeting promises to be a very interesting one.

Mrs. Eula Hutchinson, of East Gregory street, has as her guests during the holidays Mrs. W. C. Dillard, of Montgomery, Ala., and Mrs. D. T.
Williams and Mrs. Mary Gould, of Milton.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Josie Palmes, who is one of the efficient trained nurses at St. Vincent's hospital in Birmingham, is expected home Thursday, and will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L.
Palmes during the holidays.

Mr. Frank Reymundo and children, and little Alman Payne, have returned from a brief but pleasant visit to Mobile.

Miss Ellie Shuttleworth, who has been visiting friends in Mobile for the past few weeks, has returned home.

Miss Blanch McHugh is expected home Saturday from the Convent of The Visitation in Mobile, where she is attending school. She will remain during the holidays.

Miss Olga White will arrive home from Camp Hill, Ala., where she is teaching in the college of that name.
She will be accompanied home by her little niece, Miss Effie White, who is attending school at Camp Hill.

Mr. James M. Johnson left on the noon train for Marianna, where he will spend several days hunting.

Mr. Ernest Flournoy and Miss Flournoy, of Mobile, who have been visiting Miss Hazel Johnson and sister, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gerelds, parents of Mr. James Gerelds, one of Pen-sacola's prominent young business men, will arrive in Pensacola Sunday afternoon from Birmingham and spend

FALLING HAIR STOPPED.

Baldness Cured by Destroying the Parasitic Germ that Causes It.

Baldness follows falling hair, falling hair follows dandruff, and dandruff is the result of a germ digging its way into the scalp to the root of the hair where it saps the vitality of the hair.
To destroy that germ is to prevent as well as cure dandruff, falling hair, and lastly, baldness. There is only one preparation known to do that, New-bro's Herpicide, an entirely new, scientific discovery. Wherever it has been tried it has proven wonderfully successful. I can't be otherwise, because it utterly destroys the dandruff germ. "You destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

For sale by W. A. D'Alemberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 South Palafox street, or send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. James Gerelds at their home in New City.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKinnon and Miss Clara Lang, of Muscogee, are in town for a few days doing their Christmas shopping.

Mr. C. W. Oliver is expecting his mother and sister for the Christmas holidays. They will come from Montreal, Canada, and the change from the climate of Canada to that of Florida, will be a delightful and decided one.

Mr. Edward Labean and Mr. Philip Beall are expected home this week from Spring Hill College. Mr. Le-bean will be the guest of his aunt, Mrs. John B. Jones, and Mr. Beall will visit his mother, Mrs. C. W. Alder.

Mr. I. H. Rehfield, who has been very ill for the past few weeks with typhoid fever is convalescing, much to the pleasure of his friends who sincerely regretted his serious condition.

It is in the flavor. Try Blue Ribbon is perfection. Ask for the 25c size.

DeFUNIACK.

Special to The Journal.
DeFunak, Dec. 18.—Mrs. S. G.
Forbes of Birmingham, Ala., was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Thompson last week.

Mrs. Ida Baines left Monday morning for Chicago, to be with her sister, Mrs. Simpson, who is very ill.

Capt. W. W. Flournoy returned home last week.

Mr. Kenneth Bruce of Brooklyn, N.
Y., leaves for Alabama Tuesday, where he and his wife will spend Christmas with Mrs. Kenneth's relatives.

Mrs. H. W. Wier of Ligonier, Ind., is here for the winter at the home of Mrs. Sue Gillis.

Miss Della Williamson is the new teacher in the primary department.

Mr. George Banfil returned to Bon-fay Sunday evening.

The K. of P.'s will give a reception to Grand Chancellor H. Horsler the 27th of this month.

The Junior Christian Endeavor met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gus Campbell, where they had a jolly time.

Mrs. William Rogers has bought the Martin property on 14th street and will make extensive improvements.

Dr. H. A. Gillette who with his wife, moved from here to Tampa some months ago, died in that city Sunday morning. Dr. Gillette was in very poor health when he left here, but it was hoped that the change would prove beneficial to him.

Work has commenced on the addition to the freight depot.

Morning and evening services were held in St. Agatha's Episcopal church last Sunday, the Rev. Robert Scott of Marianna officiating.

The Rev. J. E. Northcutt of the M.
E. Church South, has been returned for another year, much to the satisfaction of its members.

GANTT.

Gantt, Ala., Dec. 17.—This is a new town located in the northern part of Covington county on the Georgia Central railroad, nine miles north of Andalusia.
This point will be remembered by a number of our Florida citizens as H. Gantt's mill on Conecuh river. This was one of the best water mills in all this section. It was erected by the Captain Gantt in 1867, and the material manufactured by this mill was rafted down Conecuh river to Fair Pass, then transferred to Pensacola.
This mill, still in operation, is owned by Mr. D. B. Gantt, the second son of the Captain.

The Georgia Central crosses the river just below the mill and about four hundred yards north stands a nice depot. The town is rapidly improving with four good business houses of general merchandise, one drug store, two turpentine stills, two churches (Baptist and Methodist), a fine school, Masonic Lodge, one good hotel, managed by Wm. Gantt, a brother of Captain Gantt.

The town is surrounded by a fine belt of timber and fine farming lands.
The merchants have this season bought over 2,000 bales of cotton and the next season expect to double the amount. Its low lands seem to be high, town lots selling for a splendid price, but the progress of the town is due largely to the farming interest and the people are enterprising and progressive.

CHUMUCKLA.

North Chumuckla, Dec. 17.—Last Thursday morning the 13th, the citizens of Milton were startled when the sad news reached them of the sudden demise of the Rev. Robt. Smiley. He was found dead in his bed early Thursday morning. His remains were brought from Milton for interment in Ocon Hill cemetery, accompanied by his son-in-law, Mr. W.
R. Williams and Rev. W. T. Ellis, of Milton, pastor of the M. E. church, south of Milton.

Brother Glenn, presiding elder of the Pensacola district, assisted in the funeral services at the grave and there delivered a fitting eulogy.

Brother Smiley leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. W. R. Williams, of Milton, and Mrs. Ella Sessoms, of Texas.

We, one and all, extend to the bereaved ones our deepest sympathy in this, their sad hour of trouble.
